II. INSTRUCTIONS

A. In responding to these Document Requests, you are required to produce all responsive documents within your possession, custody, or control, as well as all other responsive documents that are currently possessed or controlled by you, by your present or former attorneys, agents, professionals, employees, officers, directors or managers, advisors, representatives, or by any other legal entities controlled by or affiliated with you.

B. These Document Requests are ongoing and continuing in nature. Any responsive documents received or identified by you after the date of your initial response must be produced pursuant to these Document Requests.

C. If an objection to any Document Request is made, such objection must be made in writing and must describe in detail the legal and factual basis for such objection, and must identify the specific Document Request and language within such Document Request to which the objection is made.

D. Electronically stored information must be produced in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Images. Responsive Documents shall be produced in image format, with searchable text load files that are compatible with standard litigation support software, including Relativity, Concordance, and IPRO. The images shall be either black and white, single-page, 300 DPI, Group IV .tiff images or color .jpg images. Images for documents created with office or personal productivity software (e.g., word-processing documents, spreadsheets, presentations, databases, charts, and graphs) shall include tracked changes, comments, hidden rows, columns or worksheets, speakers notes, and any other similar content that can be made visible within the application.
2. Load File. The load file shall include for each Document, to the extent practicable, information identifying the custodian file, group shared file, or other source from which the Document was obtained. For any Documents that have been globally de-duplicated, the custodian field shall include or shall be updated to include all custodians who had a copy of the Document before de-duplication. For each individual Document based on an electronic file, the load file shall, to the extent practicable, contain the path to the corresponding text that is extracted from the electronic file, not generated as an OCR file from the .tiff image(s).
 - a. In addition to the foregoing, for all email, the load file shall also include, to the extent practicable, header information including: (1) the individual(s) to whom the communication was directed ("To"); (2) the author of the e-mail communication ("From"); (3) all individuals who were copied ("cc") and/or blind copied ("bcc") on the communication; (4) the subject line of the communication ("Re" or "Subject"); and (5) the date and time sent.

- b. For each Document, the load file shall also contain: (1) the beginning Bates number (referring to the first page of the Document); (2) the ending Bates number (referring to the last page of the Document); and in the case of emails with attachments, (3) the beginning attachment range number(s) and (4) the ending attachment range number(s), where the “attachment range” records the relationship of emails to their attachments. The attachment range should be recorded from the first page of the first Document in the attachment range, to the last page of the last Document in the attachment range.
3. Native Files. In addition, all Documents whose native format is that of a Microsoft Excel file (or other electronic spreadsheet file) shall be produced with a single-page placeholder (Group IV .tiff image) indicating that the file is a spreadsheet and shall be produced in native format, including the logical formulae within the cells of the spreadsheet and any metadata contained in the file. The right to demand production of any other responsive Documents in their native format (including all metadata) is expressly reserved.
4. Metadata. Load files shall contain the following metadata fields:
 - PRODBEG,
 - PRODEND,
 - PRODBEGATTACH,
 - PRODENDATTACH,
 - EMAIL_DATE,
 - EMAIL_TIME,
 - FROM,
 - TO,
 - CC,
 - BCC,
 - SUBJECT,
 - CUSTODIAN,
 - MD5 HASH,
 - FILENAME,
 - FILE_PATH (path to any native files being produced), and
 - TEXT PRECEDENCE (path to text of file being produced).

E. All documents produced shall be organized and labeled to correspond with the requests in these Document Requests or shall be produced as they are kept in the ordinary course of business.

F. All documents produced shall be produced in their entirety notwithstanding the fact that portions thereof may contain information not requested. All interim as well as final versions or drafts of the documents shall be produced, and all versions or copies that are not identical to the original or another produced copy, whether due to handwritten notations, modifications, changes, amendments, revisions, or otherwise, shall be produced.

G. For any document or other requested information no longer in existence and for which there is some record of its existence or destruction, identify the document or other information, and state how, when, and why it passed out of existence or cannot be located.

H. If any of the documents or information requested is claimed to be immune from discovery on the grounds of privilege or other exemption, then identify the purported privilege or exemption claimed, state the basis for the privilege or exemption asserted, and describe the information alleged to be privileged in detail sufficient to determine if the privilege has been properly invoked, as and to the extent required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5), made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 9014.

III. REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS⁴

Please produce the following to the offices of Kauff Laton Miller, LLP, 950 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022 (Attn: Scott D. Laton) or in such other manner as shall be mutually agreed:

1. All executed versions of the Trust Agreement, including all amendments and supplements thereto.

⁴ Cortland and Solus will coordinate with U.S. Bank to avoid or limit duplication between the Documents produced by U.S. Bank and those produced by the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico, PREPA, or the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Authority.

2. All resolutions of the PREPA Board authorizing the issuance of any Bonds that are currently outstanding, including all exhibits and schedules to such resolutions.
3. All “Official Statements,” “Offering Memoranda” or similar offering documents issued in connection with any issuance of any Bonds that are currently outstanding.
4. All Communications, since May 4, 2012, with any other person or entity relating to the Fuel Line Loans, including all such Communications relating to the Current Expense treatment or priority status of the Fuel Line Loans.
5. Documents showing whether U.S. Bank had or has control — as of the Petition Date or at present — over any of the following:
 - a. the General Fund;
 - b. the Revenue Fund;
 - c. the Sinking Fund (including any account within the Sinking Fund);
 - d. the Reserve Maintenance Fund;
 - e. the Self-insurance Fund;
 - f. the Capital Improvement Fund;
 - g. the Subordinate Obligations Fund;
 - h. the Renewal and Replacement Fund;
 - i. the Construction Fund; and
 - j. the General Reserve Fund.

The response to this request should include any Documents showing the location of such funds or accounts (i.e. the bank) and any account control agreements or other similar agreements relating to such funds or accounts.

6. Documents sufficient to show the amount and series of all Bonds currently outstanding.
